

Officers have lucky escape after police car overturns in snow on M6

Posted by HuddleHub / 12 - February - 2018

A Cumbria Police vehicle was involved in a one vehicle road traffic collision on the M6 yesterday morning (11th February) near Wreay.

The collision was reported at 12.04am where a vehicle responding to an incident elsewhere in the county skidded on ice causing the vehicle to roll several times.

Two male officers were in the vehicle at the time and both were taken to the Cumberland Infirmary with minor injuries.