The glamorous ladies from Maya Maya clothing in Kendal are preparing to bare their assets in a bid to raise Â£10,000 for CancerCare in South Cumbria.

They will be joined on stage for the fabulous all-singing, all-dancing performance by some of their customers and members of Kendal Rugby Club.

Maya Maya Goes Monty has proved to be an extremely popular event and is already sold out. However, Amanda is selling raffle tickets with a superb top prize and people can donate to CancerCare by text or through JustGiving (please see the details below).

Photographer, Ian Wood, has donated his services as has jeweller, Jonathan May, of The Studio Workshop in Kendal, who has made a special pendant for the event. Optiport-Audio are providing the light show and Amb-Vision are videoing the night free of charge.

People are travelling from all over the UK to watch the show and Amanda has paid for a professional comedian called Stefan Peddie and the band, Pazoozalators, to perform.

During the event guests will have the opportunity to take part in an auction and a competition to guess the movies represented in each dance routine.
